C. Independent Living Facility for Seniors or Persons with Disabilities

1. Defined

Independent Living Facility for Seniors or Persons with Disabilities means a building containing dwelling units and related services for senior adults or persons with disabilities. Independent Living Facility for Seniors or Persons with Disabilities includes meal preparation and service, day care, personal care, nursing or therapy, or any service to the senior adult or disabled population of the community that is an ancillary part of one of these operations.

2. Use Standards

- a. Where an Independent Living Facility for Seniors [or Persons with Disabilities] is allowed as a limited use, it must satisfy the following standards:
 - i. The facility must meet all applicable Federal, State, and County licensure, certificate, and regulatory requirements.
 - ii. Resident staff necessary for the operation of the facility are allowed to live on-site.
 - iii. Occupancy of a dwelling unit is restricted to the following:

- (a) a senior adult [or person with disabilities,] as defined in Section 1.4.2, Defined Terms;
- (b) [the spouse of a senior or disabled resident,] other members of the household of a senior adult regardless of age [or disability]; or
- (c) a [resident care-giver, if needed to assist a senior or disabled resident; or] person authorized to occupy housing provided under any federal or state program that is specifically designed and operated to assist elderly persons as defined in that program.
- (d) [in a development designed primarily for persons with disabilities rather than senior adults, one parent, daughter, son, sister, or brother of a handicapped resident, regardless of age or disability.]
- [(e) Age restrictions must] If imposing age restrictions that would limit occupancy otherwise allowed by this Subsection, the facility must only impose age restrictions that satisfy at least one type of exemption for housing for older persons from the familial status requirements of the federal “Fair Housing Act,” Title VIII of the Civil Rights Act of 1968, as amended, or the state Fair Housing Act, Subtitle 7 of Title 20 of the Annotated Code of Maryland, State Government Article as amended.

- b. Where an Independent Living Facility for Persons with Disabilities is allowed as a limited use, it must satisfy the following standards:
- i. The facility must meet all applicable federal, state, and County licensure, certificate, and regulatory requirements.
 - ii. Resident staff necessary for the operation of the facility are allowed to live on-site.
 - iii. Occupancy of a dwelling unit is restricted to the following:
 - (a) a person with disabilities, as defined in Section 1.4.2, Defined Terms;
 - (b) the spouse of a disabled resident, regardless of age or disability;
 - (c) a resident caregiver, if needed to assist a disabled resident; or
 - (d) any parent, daughter, son, sister, or brother of a handicapped resident, regardless of age or disability.
- c. Where an Independent Living Facility for Seniors or Persons with Disabilities is allowed as a conditional use, it may be permitted by the Hearing Examiner under all limited use standards, Section 7.3.1, Conditional Use, and the following standards:
